How We Collect and Use Your Personal Data

We primarily collect personal data and email addresses when a user decides to use the Contact tab to leave a comment, critique or question. This data is collected on site and archived. We collect this data to better understand resident questions and concerns. We often respond to these queries directly. We also might use the actual question or concern in general communications with residents without necessarily identifying the author. We also might share this personal data within our various working groups. We also have the ability to collect data regarding visiting patterns to various pages or sections of the Website. This surfing data is anonymous. There is no processing of data obtained by your usage. The archive of data will be kept through the limited life of the Website.

Third Party Websites

In compiling information deemed important to residents, we collect both material and third party Website links and place them on the site for the convenience of our users. We accept no responsibility for third party privacy policies.
